Governor Shaw, of Iowa, who succeeds Mr. Gage as Secretary of the Treasury is a banker, and to his credit, it is recorded, he never foreclosed a mortgage.

Governor Leslie M. Shaw, who takes Secretary Gage's place in the Treasury, is another self-made man, He began life on a Vermont farm, but went West and "grew up with the country."

About twenty thousand Santa Claus letters wind up in the Dead Letter Office every year, and doubtless some of the Dead Letter Office people wish the Dutch had never invented Santa.

A New York syndicate will soon begin the erection of a hotel which will be the nobbiest on the continent, and compared with which the Waldorf Astoria will figure as country stage inn.

The Topeka, Kansas boy, who wrote to Santa Clans and said all he wanted was a gun and a Bible, is probably a juvenile member of the Church Militant, and somewhat of an offset to the other Topeka boy who refused to pray in school and was dismissed.

The increase of taxable property in this State this year over last year is between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000. The four wealthiest counties are Wake, which reports $11,794,806; Mecklenburg, $11,697,242; Durham, $10,347,138, and Buncombe, $10,116,861.

The girls in Smith College, Mass., are about to start an insurrection because the faculty has issued a rule which prohibits a girl from riding in a carriage with a student of Amherst College unless the girl is engaged to be married to him. This may possibly result in some temporary engagements, if not in a revolt.

AT THE PLAY HOUSE.

A Breezy Time Will be Here New Year's Day, Matinee and Night.

MONTE CRISTO---SAG HARBOR

Two of Liebler & Company's Big Attractions to be Presented at Opera House Next Week—Jas. O'Neill With Company of Strong Actors.

The clash of interest in "A Breezy Time," with its fine band and orchestra will be seen at the Opera House New Year's day, matinee and night, is brought by the fact that the creditors of a young college student have pursued him out of town, and that the girl he loves has done likewise. It is easily to be seen that comic complications can grow out of this state of things, Leaving the plot altogether out of the question, however, the piece is said to bring upon the stage a great many people who have made hits in their time, and who have been brought together for the first time in the newest—"A Breezy Time." Price 25, 50 and 75 cents. Bargain matinee 25 cents for everybody. Seats on sale Tuesday morning at Gerken's.

Monte Cristo.

Supported by a notable company of over fifty people, and with the same great scenic production that ran all last season in New York, Boston and Chicago, Mr. James O'Neill will be seen at the Opera House next Thursday night, January 2nd, in a colossal revival of "Monte Carlo." The production was furnished by Liebler & Company, a firm whose name has become synonymous with star casts and magnificent spectacles, and it is said that they have outdone themselves in this instance. The company includes such prominent artists as Frederic De Belleville, James O'Neill, Jr., Warren Conlan, W. J. Dixon, Claude Gilbert, Joseph Slaytor, Edward Lally, Mark Ellsworth, Edgar Forrest, Miss Selene Johnson, Kate Fletcher and Virginia Keating. The subsidiary company is extremely large and in keeping with the immensity of the production.

The sale of seats for this engagement will open Tuesday morning at Gerken's. Prices, $1.50 and $1.00. Admission, 75 cents.

Sag Harbor.

James A. Herne's "Sag Harbor" has been considered by most of the able critics who have seen it a better play from the higher art standpoints than even Herne's earlier famous work "Shore Acres." Its record of success is undoubtedly the greatest of all Herne plays, and it is not at all singular that our theatre-goers are on the qui vive to see this play about which so much in extreme commendation has been said and written.

In "Sag Harbor" assurance is given by Liebler & Co., under whose skillful management the play enjoyed such marked success in the East that it will be given here with the same splendid scenic investiture that was such a factor in New York, Boston and Chicago. It will be presented at the Opera House Friday night, January 3rd.

They will arrive at that place Sunday in charge of Mr. E. S. Boutcher, of Easton, Pa. Mr. Boutcher is a prominent railroad man and sportsman, and is well known in this section of the State. They are to be initiated into the pleasures of this sport at Rutherfordton.

THE ELKS' STAG SMOKER.

Second Anniversary of the Founding of the Lodge Will be an Occasion Full of Sweet Pleasures.

The second anniversary of the Wilmington Lodge of Elks will be celebrated to-morrow night at the Elks' Temple with a stag smoker. The occasion is being looked forward to with unusual interest by the many Elks in Wilmington, and it will be one of the most enjoyable events yet given by that festive fraternity.

A special meeting of the lodge is called at 8 o'clock to initiate two candidates. Immediately after the initiatory exercises the smoker will be on.

An excellent programme for the evening has been arranged and it is expected to be very pleasant. All members are urged to be present to make it the success it deserves. There will be happy responses to several appropriate toasts.

The gathering will be an occasion of thanksgiving and general rejoicing at the phenomenal strides made by the local lodge in the two years of its existence. Members of the Wilmington Lodge of Elks now number a hundred and fifty and the order here is on a sound basis and in a most flourishing condition. The stag smoker will be just what it ought to be, one of the most delightful and pleasant celebrations in the history of the antlered tribe of this city.

HAD A ROUGH VOYAGE

Capt. Pennewell and His Young Companion Arrived Safely at New York.

The schooner Emily F. Northam, for which some anxiety was felt, has reached New York in safety. She sailed from this port on December the 6th with a cargo of lumber for Stamford, Conn. The day after the vessel sailed from Southport she struck a hurricane, and for many days she encountered exceedingly rough weather. Her only mishap during the voyage was the losing of a part of her deck load.

It will be remembered that Master George Shepard left on the schooner with Capt. Pennewell. The safe arrival of the vessel through the stretch of bad weather is due largely to the capability of Capt. Pennewell, who is one of the youngest sailing masters plying on the Atlantic coast.

Capt. Pennewell will return to Wilmington for another cargo at an early date.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Experts Sent to North Carolina to Make Experiments—To Extend System.

The Weather Bureau has decided to push its wireless telegraph experiments along the North Carolina coast. Observer Pickells, of Norfolk, has been ordered to Manteo, N. C., to join Profs. Fessender, Thiessen and Heaps, the Weather Bureau's wireless telegraphy experts. The system has already been in successful operation between Hatteras and Cape Henry, where permanent stations have been established. The system is now to be extended and attempts will be made to disseminate weather reports to ships at sea. Prof. Fessender claims his system to be superior to that of Marconi, who has only recently successfully signalled across the ocean without wires.

MR. GWATHMEY'S HORSES.

His Bay Trotter Tudor Chimes Was the Star Attraction On the Speedway. Won Many Heats.

The following clipping from the New York Evening Telegram of a recent date will be read with interest by many Wilmingtonians:

Mr. A. B. Gwathmey and his bay trotter Tudor Chimes, 2:13, recently purchased at a long price as a pole mate for Tiverton, were the star attractions at the Speedway yesterday. It was the owner's first appearance in several weeks, and he seemed to thoroughly enjoy riding at speed over the firm, smooth surface. His trainer, John Howell, was behind Tiverton, and as the two horses have shown so fast together to the pole, the owner was anxious to see them pitted against each other in single harness.

"The horses proved as closely matched in single harness as when harnessed together, and although Tudor Chimes won each heat, it looked to a spectator as if Mr. Howell could have made the pace just a trifle faster with Tiverton, even if he had not been able to win. It is never considered quite 'good form' for a trainer to finish in front of his employer. On the other hand, it must be remembered that the two horses had many keen contests before Mr. Gwathmey made the purchase, and Tudor Chimes never lost a heat, except on two occasions, when he lost his stride."

POINT CASWELL NOTES.

Interesting Christmas Exercises Held at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday Night.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

POINT CASWELL, Dec. 28.—On Tuesday evening a large crowd assembled at the church to witness the exercises of the children and view the beautiful Christmas tree laden with useful presents for the children.

The exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Starbuck, who was spending his vacation at Point Caswell. After the prayer the children sang several songs suitable to the occasion, Miss Annie Paddison acting as organist, after which the various presents were distributed to the children, who greatly enjoyed them.

The Sabbath school of this church is in a very healthy condition, the attendance is large and regular and it is said to be the very best in the county.

I cannot close without mentioning the great interest taken in this entertainment by the Misses Mary and Minnie Henry, and to whose efforts the success is mainly due.

SPECTATOR.

At Blackwell's Chapel.

The Christmas tree exercises at Blackwell's Chapel on Christmas night were quite a success. The Sunday school children were pleased with the gifts of Santa Claus. Rev. J. J. Payseur, pastor of the Brooklyn Baptist church, delivered a splendid lecture on Sunday schools.

SUNDAY MORNING, DEC. 29.

WEYLER METHODS IN THE PHILIPPINES.

The Atlanta Constitution has a correspondent, Jos. Ohl, who has been travelling in the far East, from which he writes letters from various places which he visits, interesting letters, too. He is now in the Philippines, where he is, by personal observation and mingling with army officers and Filipinos, gathering a large amount of information, some of which he sends in a letter from Cebu, which is published in the Constitution of the 26th inst., from which we make a few extracts which throw a light on American methods, illustrating "benevolent assimilation," and the feeling of the Filipinos, who we have been so often assured are eager to call themselves Americans. Beginning, he says:

"The higher civilized and altogether humane methods that characterized the rule of the gentle Weyler in Cuba are being resorted to by the American army in its efforts to subject the Visayans of this island of Cebu, of Bohol, and would be put into effect in Samar, if the conditions were favorable. Whole villages have been burned by the orders of the general commanding this district, and the reconcentrado policy of which we heard so much in Cuba is about to be put into operation here, if, indeed, it cannot be said to have already been instituted. General Hughes believes that "war is hell," as Sheridan said, and he is giving the people of Cebu a taste of the brimstone.

"Only a few nights ago an American officer boasted that he is known as the Weyler of the district where he is in command. He also said—though it may seem incredible—that he was proud of being so called.

"The people of the United States have no conception of the conditions prevailing down here. If they had, a howl would go up from one end of the country to the other. Army officers tell of these things in confidence, but nothing is said with the idea that it shall get to the outside world. I have no doubt that when this appears in the Constitution there will be a chorus of denial, and yet I am writing only that which I get from the very best authority.

"General orders have been issued that whosoever shall in give any aid and comfort to the enemy shall be visited with dire punishment; that his house shall be burned over his head and that he himself shall be dealt with as severely as is possible. The officer commanding the battalion over on Bohol has been given instructions to kill off everybody suspected of connection with the insurgents. He has been told that these orders give him the widest latitude; that he is not to be very particular whether the suspect is bearing arms or has been; if he is a suspect, he is to be treated as an outlaw and shot down.

"The people are to be brought in from the country and cooped up in the towns; those who refuse to come are to be hunted down. The only difference I can see between this and the Weyler methods which brought down the wrath of the world upon the head of Spain, is that the Filipino reconcentrados will in all probability be fed better than the Spanish fed those in Cuba.

"These drastic measures are considered necessary by General Hughes because conditions on this island and its little neighbor Bohol are worse to day than they have been at any time. Army officers who tell of these orders say they think them necessary in order to put a speedy end to the troubles and argue that it will turn out best for the Filipinos, even if they lose their lives as the result of it all."

The soldiers are convinced or say they are that the way to deal with these people who show any disposition to prefer a government of their own to American Government is to shoot them down and destroy their homes and thus command obedience by inspiring terror, and they are acting upon this principle. This correspondent enumerates instances where people have been shot down as suspects, and where towns have been fired by the Americans because the people who were ordered by the insurgents under a threat of death to supply provisions supplied them to escape the vengeance of their armed countrymen. They were "between the devil and the deep sea," as the saying is, for not to have furnished the provisions would have brought down upon them the vengeance of their countrymen and furnishing them brought down the vengeance of the Americans.

We have been told that the Filipinos are incapable of self-government, but speaking of the island of Cebu this correspondent says:

"After the Spanish left Cebu, on Christmas 1898, the Filipinos had set up their own civil government, taking up the reins where Spain let them go.

The civil affairs were administered by the Filipinos who, according to the records, had a well organized and fairly well regulated government. It had its judiciary and its postal service; it controlled the port and the customs, and, in short, ran along fully as well as did the Spanish government. For several months the island, like the others here in the South, was let alone by the Americans. After they came they were not disturbed for about a year. An American government was set up. Recently because it is alleged that the firing upon this town and the barrios warranted extreme measures, this civil government was set aside, and the military is now in complete control."

These people had civil governments in all the islands up to the time of American occupation, governments by the people, when everything seemed to run soomthly and yet we are told that they are not capable of self government. These governments may not have come up to the American idea, but they suited the people quite as well, and perhaps better than our method of government would.

Our correspondent says the Filipinos have an intense hatred for the Americans and gives some of the reasons. They hate them worse than they hated the Spaniards, for while under Spanish rule the Spaniards mingled with the people, intermarried with them and identified themselves with the people, the Americans look upon them with contempt, which extends even to the better classes of the Filipinos. Another cause is that where the women are weak enough to be influenced by money, many of them are prostituted by American soldiers, who receive more pay than the average Spanish office holder did under the old regime. One of the things of which the Filipinos before the change felt proud was the virtue of their women.

But aside from this there is race feeling which is as strong between the brown people of the Philippines and the American as it is between the white people of the South and the negro. They want a government of Filipinos for Filipinos by Filipinos, and they will never be satisfied with anything less. Speaking of this race feeling, he quotes an officer as saying:

"The man is blind who does not see that under all these protestations of friendship for the Americans there is a longing for a government of their own. The men of intelligence among them see that acceptance of American sovereignty is the only thing for the present, but even with those who hold office under our government, even with those men of rank and education who know that American rule would best protect them, there is the feeling for independence.

"The man who talked with me was born in the South. 'You know,' said he, 'what a race feeling means. Well, these brown men have it as strongly as have the white men. They will never be satisfied until they get a brown man's government. That is the 'one idea' which they all of them hold. They believe themselves fully capable of handling a government of their own, and they have the racial hatred for the white man who considers himself their superior. We know that for the masses of the people our government would be infinitely better than any that could be set up by the Filipinos, especially since their long years of education in corruption and bribery by the Spaniards; but whether we will ever be able to make the people understand, it is something no man can say. The prospects are anything but favorable."

As showing the feeling of the natives he thus refers to an interview he had with a Filipino editor:

"One of the most intelligent Filipinos I have met is the editor of El Nueva Dia, The New Day, published here at Cebu. He is Sergio Ormena, a full blood Filipino, a man of education, forec and ideas. He is a strong national and there is likely to come a day when he will find his office closed by the military authorities. They are looking for an opportunity to shut him up, and if he is not very careful they will find it.

"In talking with me about the future, Ormena said the people would never be satisfied until they had their own government. He seemed to appreciate the motives impelling this government in taking control of things down here, but he is full of the idea that this should be a government of the Filipinos by the Filipinos. I asked him if the people would not be satisfied if Filipinos are given the administration of affairs under American direction. Upon this point he was very positive. 'Only,' said he' if they are convinced that it means ultimate independence.'

"But can there be such a thing as a Filipino government with these different races, which have had long standing feuds among themselves, which speak different languages and have different interests? Could such a government be stable?

"The Filipinos, no matter what their original tribal divisions, are united in their hearts upon this one thing—that they want a Filipino government. The wars with Spain and the war that has been fought with the United States have had one certain result—they have united the Filipinos. They are now Filipinos first; their tribal relations are secondary."

When this editor was asked if the the Fillipinos wouldn't change with education and when they came to understand our methods and intentions like us better, he replied:

"No! On the contrary, the children of the coming generation will feel the desire for independence even more than we do. It is being instilled in them from boyhood. Education in English will only tend to impress them the stronger with the conviction of their ability to administer and maintain their own government. Those who count upon making over the Filipino by teaching him English have little conception of what racial instincts and race feeling mean."

As corroborating the views of this editor the correspondent concludes with a quotation from one of the highest officers in the army who had seen much service in the Southwest.

"Take New Mexico and that portion of Texas along the Rio Grande," said he. "The people are citizens in a sense—they have been educated in our schools, and everything possible has been done for them through fifty years and more. Yet everybody who has been brought in contact with them knows that they are as much Mexicans as they ever were, as thoroughly Mexicans as were their forefathers. You cannot make over a race by teaching it another language."

In other words learning the English language will not change the nature of men and will no more make an American of a Filipino than learning English makes an Englishman of a Sepoy.

A report comes from Washington that the ladies of the cabinet are going to socially boycott the ladies of Secretary Long's family because in all the time they have been living in Washington they have not given any social layouts, although accepting invitations and participating in those given by the other ladies. There is always some trouble brewing in Washington, and this right on the heels of the Schley racket.

GIRDING THE EARTH WITH RAILS.

It is predicted that within fifteen years the trip can be made from Paris to New York by rail, and possibly from London, for a tunnel under the British channel is not among the impossibilities or even improbabilities. That would be really less of an engineering feat in these days of wonderful engineering achievements than the building of a railroad along the Alaskan coast, which is proposed, would be. A company has been organized for this purpose and it is said it means business.

The intention is to make the Alaskan terminus of this road somewhere on Bering's Straits, which, it is said, can be bridged by taking advantage of the islands, and thus rail connection be mad with the trans-Siberian road, giving all rail travel across both hemispheres. But if bridging the straits should prove impracticable the distance across by boat would be insignificant, and no very serious obstacle in the way of such an enterprise. The only question is, "will it pay?" If men who have millions to invest in railroads or other enterprises of that character become convinced of this that road will surely be built, whether within the predicted time or not.

There are great mineral and timber resources in Alaska, which of themselves would tempt investment in a railroad to develop and utilize them. If the company which proposes to undertake this work secures the land grants from Congress that it asks for these, with a railroad penetrating them, would more than pay the cost of construction and leave an immense margin for profit to the projectors of this enterprise.

TRUSTS IN GERMANY.

Germany is a high protection country which has undertaken to build up its manufacturing and other productive industries by bounties in the form of a protective tariff. Germany is now suffering from a reaction, which must surely come to all countries which carry stimulation to the forcing point. But Germany is suffering from another cause which also had its origin in this same protective bounty system, that is trusts, which have sprung up in that country, as they have in this, although not so numerously.

The British consul at Stuttgart in his annual report on the industrial situation, says there are between 100 and 130 trusts of various sizes and descriptions, covering almost everything but the textile industry, which seem to have kept out of the trusts there as they have in this country.

Their object there, as it is in this country, is to control the output and prices, to prevent overproduction and keep prices from falling. They make, as they do in this country, both the selling and buying prices, so that they absolutely control the market on the things in which they are interested. To prevent conflict and friction they divide territory between them, adopt rigid rules and regulations to prevent taking advantage of each other, prescribe penalties for violation, and conduct their operations with the strictest privacy. This is simply the American trust transplanted in Germany.

But trusts are all alike, for grab is the inspiration of all. They are made possible only by protection, which bars out competition and gives them undisputed sway.

The principal reason why Gov. Crane, of Massachusetts, declined to accept the Secretaryship of the Treasury which was tendered him was because he didn't want to be separated from his mother, who is old, and she didn't want to live in Washington. That settled it, and also said a good deal for Gov. Crane.

A New York woman, aspiring to fame, has just returned after crossing the continent on her bicycle, going and coming. She rode 4,000 miles and tramped 2,000 where she couldn't ride. She weighed 140 pounds when she started and 103 when she got back. She will not do so any more.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy. Price 50 cents.

Nothing tastes good. Nothing gives pleasure. The mind is dull and sluggish. The will is weak. Little things cause great irritation. What's the matter? The probabilities are that the stomach is deranged and the liver involved.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes a man who is run down and dispirited feel like a new being. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, stirs the sluggish liver into action, and increases the activity of the blood-making glands, so that there is an abundant supply of pure, rich blood.

Mr. Edward Jacobs, of Marengo, Crawford Co., Indiana, writes: "After three years of suffering with liver trouble and malaria I gave up all hopes of ever getting stout again, the last chance was to try your medicine. I had tried all the home doctors and received but little relief. After taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets' I am stout and hearty. It is due entirely to your wonderful medicines."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— President Roosevelt appears to be determined to put a quietus upon the Schley-Sampson controversy in so far as he can do so by virtue of his authority as commander-in-chief. But he will do well to bear in mind that nothing is ever finally settled until it is settled right. —Atlanta Journal, Dem.

——The statement from Washington that Henry C. Payne, the new Postmaster General, was not in Washington as a lobbyist, but as a lawyer, might be accepted but for the fact that Mr. Payne is not and never has been a lawyer or a law student. He was a dry goods merchant, then an insurance agent and then a political manager and officeholder.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— "The President's position," says the Rochester Herald, "should be as plain to Admiral Schley as it is to every one else. It is to be hoped that he will not be so misled by mistaken friends as to force the President to declare himself more plainly." We are not sure about that. It would be as well to have a show of hand all round, for future reference.—Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

—— There are some reforms needed in the Postoffice Department which can be accomplished more easily than penny postage. One of these is the abolition of the ridiculous rule which forbids such information as "photograph," "book," etc., if written on the cover of a package, and permits it if printed or placed there with a hand-stamp. The distinction is without reason and idiotic. — Louisville Courier Journal.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Fayetteville Observer: Four hundred and seventy-six packages of whiskey, ranging from one quart to cases of twelve quarts, were brought to Fayetteville Tuesday by the Express Company. How much more came by freight we do not know. It is estimated that this represented 500 gallons, which, at $2.50 a gallon, would be $1,200. Twelve hundred dollars worth of whiskey brought to Fayetteville in one day by the Express Company alone. This is a dreadful drain on the city, far worse than the insurance outgo. —— News comes from Maxton that on Christmas eve 587 packages of whiskey, averaging from one gallon to five gallons, were shipped into Cumberland and Robeson counties, and that on Christmas day 369 packages followed to the same counties.

— Smithfield Herald: Last Tuesday Jasper Harper, colored, and a man named Baucom, also colored, became involved in an affray in one of Benson's suburbs known as Brooklyn. During the progress of the fight another negro, Cephas Langston, interfered and was shot with a pistol by Jasper Harper, the ball taking effect in his bowels. Langston lived only a day. Harper was brought here Thursday by Constable I. M. Ryals and lodged in jail to await the next term of Johnston Superior Court, which convenes on the 10th of March. —— Henry Davis, colored, was put in the guard house at Jerome last Tuesday night to await trial next day for stealing beer from the saloon of Mr. C. A. Fitzgerald. It is supposed he conceived the idea of getting out by firing the house. He fired the house on the inside, but it was not found out until 4 o'clock and it was then too late to serve either the house or the man. His body was a horrible sight when the fire was over. —— The prices of tobacco this season are considerably higher than last season. The average price paid at the Banner warehouse for December, 1900, was $8 20 per hundred. The average price at the same house for December, 1901, is $15 77 per hundred.

— "I shall soon be your new mamma," said a governess to her little charge. "I am going to marry father, Freddy, dear I wonder if you are glad?" "Hurrah!" exclaimed Freddy. "That's a perfectly splendid idea. Who thought of it first—you or papa?"—Exchange.

EVERY DAY WORK.

Grand deeds are trumpeted; loud bells are rung,
And men turn round to see
The high peaks echo to the peans sung
O'er some great victory.
And yet great deeds are few. The mightiest men
Find opportunities but now and then.

Shall one sit idle through long days of peace,
Waiting for walls to scale?
Or lie in port until some "Golden Fleece"
Lures him to face the gale?
There's work enough; why idly, then, delay.
His work counts most who labors every day.

A torrent sweeps down the mountain's brow,
With foam and flash and roar,
Anon its strength is spent, where is it now?
Its one short day is o'er.
But the clear streams that through the meadow flows
All the long summer on its mission goes.

Better the steady flow; the torrent's dash
Soon leaves its rent track dry.
The light we love is not a lightning flash
From out a midnight sky.
But the sweet sunshine, whose unfailing ray,
From its calm throne of blue lights every day.

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed.
Whose deeds, both great and small.
Are close-knit strands of one unbroken thread,
Where love ennobles all.
The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells,
The Book of Life the shining record tells.

NATURAL HISTORY.

The pouch of a pelican is large enough to contain seven quarts of water.

For mountain climbing camels are very inefficient and seldom used in Abyssinia and other mountainous countries.

Sparrows begin housekeeping very expeditiously. A pair of them will build a nest and furnish it with an egg inside of 24 hours from the time when the site was selected.

The female red grouse is said to vary its dress according to surroundings. It is a fact worth remembering that the red grouse occurs in no other part of the world but the British Isles.

No one has been able to give a satisfactory reason for the formation adopted by the wild duck or mallard in flight. The birds arrange themselves in two converging lines, like a huge V, the leader occupying the point.

The ostrich is a descendant of a genus of bird which in prehistoric times attained an enormous size. In the alluvial deposits of Madagascar evidence has recently been found to show that ostriches 14 and 15 feet in height once lived on the island.

Stevenson's Cup of Misery.

R. L. Stevenson, writing in 1893 to George Meredith, in an epistle quoted in a new edition of his "Letters," says, with heart touching pathos:

"For 14 years I have not had a day's real health. I have wakened sick and gone to bed weary, and I have done my work unflinchingly. I have written in bed and written out of it, written in hemorrhages, written in sickness, written torn by coughing, written when my head swam for weakness, and for so long, it seems to me, I have won my wager and recovered my glove. I am better now—have been, rightly speaking, since first I came to the Pacific—and still few are the days when I am not in some physical distress. And the battle goes on—ill or well is a trifle so that it goes. I was made for a contest, and the powers have so willed that my battlefield should be this dingy, inglorious one of the bed and the physic bottle. At least, I have not failed, but I would have preferred a place of trumpetings and the open air over my head."

The Life Line In One's Hand.

There are three prominent lines in the palm—the line of life, that of the head and the heart line.

The line of life begins on the inner boundary of the palm, about midway between the thumb and the forefinger. If we imagine the left hand to be a map, with the fingers pointing north, this line runs toward the southeast, then curves toward the south and in some hands curves finally toward the southwest. It thus skirts the base or "uprise" of the thumb, known as the uprise of Venus. If it is deep, broad, of good color and extends nearly or quite to the wrist and if the rest of the hand indicates vitality and cheerfulness, the subject may be expected to live to a green old age; he has a good disposition and the qualities which good health and good temper usually create.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of three to six points and after the call went off a point or so more under pressure of long cotton and under bear selling. This additional break, following as it did yesterday's sharp decline, was quite in keeping with the cable news and port movement. Liverpool went off three to three and a half points on futures and 1 16d on spot cotton, or more than twice as far as expected. As for receipts, the ports piled up something like 60,000 bales, or nearly double the arrivals for the same day last year. The first wave of selling carried January off to 803, March to 8.14 and May to 8.20. Slight reactions occurred later on flurries of profit-taking by pit shorts, but the undertone of the market was still feverish, with investors nervous sellers of late months. Europe and the South sold here along conservative lines, while Wall street withdrew from the market. Trading was fairly active all the short session, though much of the time chiefly professional. The market closed steady, with prices net two points lower to two points higher, having stiffened up near the close on active Southern buying.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Cotton quiet at 8¼c; net receipts 149 bales; gross 249 bales; stock 116,020 bales.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 8¼c; middling gulf 8¾c; sales 1,046 bales.

Cotton futures market closed steady: December 8.11, January 8 10, February

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, DEC. 29.

SCHLEY COMING SOUTH.

A Consultation With Counsel as to a Civil Action Against Publisher of the Maclay History.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Admiral Schley was joined at his apartments at the Richmond to-day by his counsel, Mr. Isidor Rayner, and assistant counsel, Mr. Teague, both of whom came over from Baltimore at the admiral's request in order to consider what further steps, if any, were to be taken in the Schley case. The parties to the conference remained together throughout the morning and well into the afternoon. When representatives of the press sent up cards of inquiry they were returned with the statement that there were no developments and nothing to be made public at the present time. It is understood that the special purpose of the meeting is to decide as to what shall be done in the way of a civil action against the author or publisher of the Maclay history, which was the basis of the recent investigation.

The conference between Admiral Schley and his counsel closed about 2 o'clock and Mr. Rayner returned to Baltimore. No statement was made as to the results reached, except that such further steps as might be taken would deal with legal rather than naval phases of the controversy.

Admiral and Mrs. Schley will leave in about a week for a trip South, to be gone about two weeks. He has not yet made up his itinerary but will do so next week.

REVOLUTION IN VENEZUELA.

Nearly the Whole of the Republic is in Revolt Against President Castro—Telegraph Lines Cut.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WILLEMSTAD, ISLAND OF CURACOA, Dec. 28.—Advices received here to-day from Caracas, Venezuela, say that the revolution against President Castro is gaining ground daily. Nearly the whole of the republic is in revolt and bands of men are scouring the country. Coro, in the State of Falcon, and Barquisimeto, in the State of Lara, particularly, are in the possession of the revolutionists.

Cable communication between Cumana, Carapano and Barcelona is interrupted and the government is without news from the State of Bermudez, (in which these ports are located), which leads to the belief that it also has been induced to revolt by Gen. Domingo Monagus.

Gen. Tuciano Mendoza (the president-elect of the State of Carabobo, who rebelled against President Castro, marched on La Victorio, and was reported to have been defeated), has escaped from the pursuit of the government troops and is now in the neighborhood of San Juan de Los Moros Antonio Fernandez and thirty chiefs of the State of Carabobo were not willing to engage the government forces before the revolution was quite ripe.

Venezuela is said to be on the verge of even more serious complications. The telegraph lines in the interior of the country have all been cut.

ELECTRIC STEEL PLANT.

To Produce Steel Ingots From Iron Ore in Thirty Minutes.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ELIZABETHTON, TENN., Dec. 28.—Charles P. Tonoray and George E. Roren have returned from New York, where they closed negotiations with the Electric Furnace Company in regard to the erection of an electric steel plant at Elizabethton. It is claimed that by this method steel ingots can be produced directly from iron ore in thirty minutes. An eight-thousand horse power electric plant will be commenced as soon as the site can be decided upon on the Watauga river near Elizabethton, and this will supply the power for the plant.

MR. CARNEGIE'S GIFT.

The Ten Million Dollars to the United States Likely to be in Cash

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—President Roosevelt received information from Andrew Carnegie that is expected to enable him to submit to Congress a formal gift of $10,000,000 to the United States for higher education. This offer will not be in bonds of the United States Steel Corporation, as formerly proposed, but will be in a form expected to be generally satisfactory. The gift is likely to be in cash or in securities drawing annual interest.

CORONER'S VERDICT IN CROPSEY CASE.

Was Read Yesterday to a Large Assemblage of People at Elizabeth City.

NO SURPRISE WAS EXPRESSED

Presence of Military Curbed Threatening Attitude Against Young Wilcox—He Declined to Make Statement. Body to be Taken North.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Dec. 28.—Andrew G Cropsey, the uncle of Miss Nell Cropsey, who had been missing since November 20th and whose body was discovered in the Pasquotank river yesterday, arrived in this city to-day from New York. Mr. Cropsey is making preparations to take the body of the dead girl to New York for interment. He is deeply affected by the tragic end of his niece. He says he has spent a large sum of money in efforts to solve the mystery enshrouding her disappearance over a month ago, and will do his utmost to solve the mystery of her death.

The verdict of the coroner's jury, which was not made public in this city last night lest it might induce the lynching of James Wilcox who is held in connection with the death of Miss Cropsey, was read to day in front of the coroner's office to a large assemblage of people. The great crowd not only manifested no sympathy for Wilcox, but seemed inclined to deal harshly with him if assurance of his guilt could be obtained.

No Demonstration of Violence.

Last night Wilcox was threatened with summary punishment but there has practically been no demonstration of violence against him. The excitement has abated somewhat; but throughout the day groups of people have been standing on the streets discussing the affair. Some of them used strong language against Wilcox.

No surprise was expressed by the general public at the result of the coroner's inquest, as the belief has been fixed in Elizabeth City that the girl was murdered. The presence of the naval reserves evidently has curbed the threatening attitude of the people toward Wilcox. Wilcox is still confined in the county jail and will be kept there pending the investigation recommended by the coroner's jury. He maintains the stolid indifference which has characterized him ever since the disappearance of Miss Cropsey. He declines to make any statement now concerning the case.

The Situation Last Night.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Dec. 28.—The presence of a squad of naval militia with loaded carbines is all that prevents an attack upon the jail in which is confined James Wilcox, accused of the murder of Nellie Cropsey. Threats of lynching were freely made to-day and the feeling against the young man continues bitter. During to-day armed guards have kept all pedestrians a block away from the jail. Solicitor Ward, the prosecuting officer of the county, requested Captain W. T. Old, commanding the militia, to redouble his vigilance to-night in expectation of an attempt to take the prisoner. To-night the saloons were closed on order of the mayor.

Solicitor Ward to-day had a warrant sworn out charging Wilcox with murder. A preliminary hearing will be held on Wednesday, when Wilcox will be held for the grand jury which meets in March.

COLORED WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Resolutions Adopted at the Session of the Ohio Federation.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 28.—At to-day's session of the Ohio Federation of Colored Women's Clubs resolutions were adopted condemning the National Federation of Women's Clubs, for insulting Mrs. Judge Ruffin, of Boston, one of the most cultured and beautiful women of our race.

The resolutions further protest against the barbarous lynchings and obnoxious "Jim Crow" car laws of the South, and the convict lease system.

"Seeking no favors because of our color," the resolutions continue, "we knock at the bar of justice and ask for an equal chance with those of the white race."

ATTEMPTED ELOPEMENT.

Two Men Shot and Dangerously Wounded by the Father of the Girl.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Dec. 28.—News has just reached here from Locust Fork, twenty-five miles from this city, where an alleged attempted elopement resulted in the shooting of Jim Snow and Jake Hood, both of whom are dangerously wounded. The shooting, it is claimed, was done by J. B. Hood, father of the young woman with whom it is alleged Jas. H. Glaze had planned to elope. Glaze went to the house of the girl, accompanied by Jake Hood, Jim Snow and several other friends. When the party arrived the father of the girl was on hand with a double-barrelled shotgun.

The Board of Election Commissioners of New York, met to hear the protests in the Belmont-O'Grady contest over the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Seventh district. It was announced, however, that the case would be taken to the Supreme court no matter what decision the elections commissioners might make.

BRITISH LOSSES AT ZEEFONTEIN.

The Aggregate of Casualties Promises to Make the Disaster a Memorable One.

LORD KITCHENER'S ACCOUNT.

Six Officers and Fifty Men Killed—Eight Officers Were Wounded and Four Are Missing—Prisoners Carried Off by Boers Number 150.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, December 24.—The War Office this afternoon issued a list of the British casualities at Zeefontein, December 24th, when Col. Firmen's camp, consisting of three companies of yeomanry and two guns, was successfully rushed by a Boer force under the command of Gen. DeWet. The length of the list demonstrates the entire success of Gen. DeWet's attack. Six officers and fifty men were killed, eight officers were wounded and four are missing. It is presumed that the missing officers were taken along with the captured guns. The number of noncommissioned officers and men wounded and missing have not yet been received, but the aggregate promises to make the Zeefontein affair a memorable disaster to the British.

Simultaneously with the above, the War Office gave out a dispatch from Lord Kitchener chronicling a minor success of the South African constabulary who raided Bothaville and captured thirty-six Boers.

Lord Kitchener's Account.

In a subsequent message, Lord Kitchener sends a stirring account of the fighting at Zeefontein, showing that the wounded and prisoners must number about 150. He says that in the absence of Col. Firman, Major Williams, who was killed, was in command. The column was encamped on the slope of a kopje, the southern side of which was precipitous. Outposts held the edge of the precipice. The northern slope, on which the camp was pitched, was gentle. The outposts were well pushed out and the position, naturally strong, had been entrenched. It was a moonlight night. The Boers appear to have climbed the precipice, and mustering near the top at 2 A. M. suddenly attacked the picket on the summit. Before the men could get clear of their tents the Boers swooped through them, shooting the soldiers down as they came out. Most of the British officers were shot while trying to stem the rush. Lieut. Harwich himself opened fire with the "pom-poms" and was shot through the heart while firing. Lieut. Watney was killed while leading a charge.

British Overwhelmed.

There was no panic and all engaged did their best. But once the picket was overwhelmed the superior force of the Boers had all the advantage, Including the killed and wounded, about half the column is now at Eland's river bridge. The remainder are prisoners. A fifteen-pounder, after two rounds, became jammed. The men composing the detachment stood by the gun and were shot down around it.

Lieut. Scarlett, who was wounded, was overlooked by the Boers and left behind. He saw two wagon loads of dead and wounded Boers carried off. They were mostly hit during the first attack on the picket.

The Boers, who apparently numbered about 1,300, under Gen. DeWet, behaved well, leaving men to look after the wounded.

The Imperial light horse were fourteen miles distant. They heard of the fight at 4:30 and arrived on the scene at 6:30. After breathing their horses they galloped after the Boers, who, however, succeeded in reaching the broken country, where the light horse were useless against superior numbers.

Relations with Germany.

WILLEMSTAD, ISLAND OF CURACOA, Dec. 28.—Reports received here from Caracas to-day say the relations between Germany and Venezuela become more strained every day. The Venezuelan government suspended traffic on the German railroad because, in view of the threats of the insurgents, the company refused to transport troops unless the government guaranteed it against losses which might be sustained by the destruction of its road and equipment. The stations are occupied by troops. The German legation at Caracas has entered an energetic protest against the government's action in this connection.

The company went fifty strong, in command of Lieutenant Coulter. The nearest railroad point being thirteen miles from Crawford, they went by private conveyance.

WINTER CATARRH

In All Its Phases and Stages Cured by Peruna.

MRS. J. E. MILLS, OF NORWICH, CONN.

Mrs. J. E. Mills, 461 Main street, Norwich, Conn., in a recent letter says:

"I write to let you know what Peruna has done for me. I have been troubled with catarrh since I was ten years old. At times my head troubled me so that I would be obliged to stay in a dark room. Nothing helped me and my physician said I could never be cured.

"I began taking Peruna this spring and find myself greatly benefited by it. I have not had an attack since I took my first bottle. I think in time it will cure me. Peruna has improved my appetite and health in general. I have gained twenty pounds in three months. I have recommended it to several of my friends, who also find it very beneficial. I advise any one troubled with catarrh to use Peruna."

Thousands of men and women all over the United States use Peruna. They do so because they have learned by experience that it is a valuable medicine.

Not only is it a valuable medicine but it is applicable to the climatic ailments of winter and summer. Extremes of heat and cold in the United States make it a land of catarrh.

Nearly everybody has catarrh. This is more especially true among the middle and lower classes. Exposure to the climate, hard work, and unventilated sleeping rooms are the principal causes. Charitable institutions have found, by bitter experience, that catarrhal diseases are not only the most numerous of all other diseases put together, but they are the hardest to cure.

Peruna is a specific for this class of diseases. No other remedy can take its place. Thousands of cases of chronic catarrh are cured by the use of simply a bottle. People who have spent large sums to be cured of catarrh, have turned to Peruna as a last resort, and been cured by the use of a single bottle.

It is a sure cure for coughs, colds, la grippe and catarrh in its many phases. Whether the catarrh is located in the head, throat, lungs, stomach, kidneys or pelvic organs, Peruna is a prompt and never-failing cure.

Mrs. Sarah Jones, Pleasant Plain, Ia., writes: "I wish to acknowledge my appreciation of the benefits received from Peruna and Manalin in the treatment of what was pronounced systemic catarrh. I took Peruna for a while and discontinued the use of it as I felt so much better. The latter part of the winter and early spring there was so much sickness here, an epidemic of colds and pneumonia prevailed. I had an attack of cold in catarrhal form, suffering with facial neuralgia and headache, but continued taking Peruna and Manalin and was soon restored without being prostrated with weakness."

A book written by Dr. Hartman on the different phases of catarrh and their treatment, also "Health and Beauty," written especially for women, sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

PANAMA COMPANY REDUCES ITS PRICE.

Will Offer to Sell the Canal Property to the United States for Forty Million Dollars.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, December 28.—M. Lampre, secretary general of the Panama Canal Company, sailed for New York today on the French line steamer L'Aquitaine, from Havre. He will confer on his arrival in the United States with a number of the Panama Company's American representatives, and overtures for the sale of the canal property to the United States will be renewed.

In view of the doubt existing in the United States regarding the price the Panama Canal Company's representatives intend to ask for the property, the correspondent of the Associated Press made inquiries from the best source of information on that subject, and is enabled to say that the price will be, approximately, $40,000,000. This figure cannot yet be given as the exact one, because the company has not yet come to a definite decision, but it will not be appreciably higher The Isthmian Commission's full report is now in the possession of the Panama Company, and its valuation will be studied in detail. The report of the directors of the Panama Company, cabled to the Associated Press December 21st, said:

"We offer to accept as the basis and point of departure of fresh negotiations the figures and declarations contained in the Isthmian Commission's report."

The estimates come to by such eminent men are not thought to be open to question, though, possibly, a few items are susceptible to reconsideration, and a few matters may remain to be decided, such as a valuation of the company's stocks of supplies; but none of these is calculated to modify the gross figure to any extent. The company does not intend to give the slightest ground for any further misunderstanding, and believes the definite price put forward will now be acceptable. With M. Lampre in America it will not be necessary for the mandatory who is empowered to submit the definitive price to depart from France until later, when the negotiations are under way.

VIRGINIA FEUD FIGHT.

One Man Killed and Three Men Wounded Two Mortally.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec, 28.—News of an exciting tragedy reaches here from Russell county, in the far southwestern part of Virginia.

On Christmas eve, while out hunting, Wilson Ray, King Ray, John Ray and Charles Ball met Robert Tuggle, Jack Osborne, two of the Taylor boys and others, who were also out gunning. Bad blood had existed for some time between Tuggle and some of the other party, a clash occurred, several shots were fired and two of the Ray crowd were slightly wounded.

The members of both parties then retired to their respective homes to procure more effective arms and secure reinforcements. The next day there was another meeting, and a regular battle ensued. One man was killed and two were mortally and a third was dangerously wounded. Owing to the wires going down the names are not given.

CHILI-ARGENTINE DISPUTE.

Controversy Again Opened—Popular Sentiment in Argentine is Very Warlike.

Peace Protocol Repudiated.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Official advices received in diplomatic quarters here indicate that the Chili-Argentine controversy is again opened. According to these advices, the peace protocol, referring the whole subject to arbitration, was signed at Santiago three days ago; but the action of the Argentine minister in placing his signature to the document seems to have caused resentment at Buenos Ayres, both among the prominent officials and the people. Accordingly, on yesterday, the Argentine minister informed the Chilian foreign office that he was unable to concur in all of the terms which had been agreed upon heretofore and signed.

The riotous demonstrations which have occurred in the streets of Buenos Ayres are thought to have resulted from the signing of this protocol, and to have been expressive of popular disappointment at the settlement with Chili. The popular sentiment in Argentine is very warlike and this leads to the belief in well posted quarters that President Roca will not succeed in any policy which can contemplate an adjustment with Chili.
